Texas Tenors

The Texas Tenors are comprised of Marcus Collins, JC Fisher, and John Hagen. The trio performed together only a few times before auditioning for America's Got Talent, but went on to become the highest ranking vocal group in the history of the show placing fourth. Their unique blend of country and classical music captivated millions, making their debut CD "Country Roots/Classical Sound" the only album to ever be #1 on both the Country and Classical Charts as tracked by CD Baby, the largest distributor of independent music in the world.

Yakov Smirnoff Dinner adventure:

Yakov has received the title "Comedian of the Year" two times, and you will never realize how proud you are of your country until you see Yakov perform. The famous, hilarious Russian comedian will share his experiences and philosophies while making you laugh till your sides hurt. Let Yakov tell you what it's like to come to this country and learn our customs the hard way in a humorous and comedic delivery. Words cannot describe the talent and charisma of this unique performer; it's something you absolutely have to experience for yourself. Come see why Yakov has been selling out shows for years. The Russian-born comedian who now calls the United States his home coined the phrase "What a Country!" He has been in movies like "Brewster's Millions" with Richard Pryor, "The Money Pit" with Tom Hanks, and "Heartburn" with Jack Nicholson. Yakov Smirnoff dinner adventure is designed to appeal to all five senses with acts from the Moscow Circus to the Human slinky.

The Shoji Tabuchi :

Just what is the Shoji Tabuchi Show that everyone loving American music is raving about? At its heart is Branson USA's first family of extraordinary musical entertainment Shoji Tabuchi, his beautiful wife Dorothy and delightful daughter Christina. The family that plays, sings, and dances encompasses all the wholesome values of truly great family entertainment. Yet the show rivals the pure excitement of Las Vegas or New York With his sense of musical perfection, Shoji searched long and hard for the right professional musicians to form his band. It is with great pride and affection that he introduces each a and every member, all of whom have one or more degrees in music. Their repertoire includes everything from country to classic, played with all the subtlety or verve, as the music demands, of a gifted musical organization. The superb dancers are Dorothy's domain. Working with a renowned choreographer, and long hours of rehearsals, she has brought the dance company to a state of perfection that rivals any dance company in the world. Their creativity ranges from dancing with twirling cowboy ropes to lively polkas Shoji will play favorite tunes , while dancers and singers put everyone in a great mood. The show features Shoji Tabuchi and his wife, Dorothy and their daughter, Christina. The dance team has worked with a world-famous choreographer and is managed by Dorothy. All the band members have a degree in music.

The Twelve Irish Tenors

Experience the earth-shattering harmonies of Branson's newest stars, who come to the Ozarks straight from Ireland with a show filled with world-class vocal talent. The stunning voices of the twelve gentleman blend together for an entertainment experience that can't be found anywhere else. Perhaps best of all, the music covered by the Twelve Irish Tenors covers all genres from jazz, pop, swing, traditional Irish melodies, and more. In fact, you may hear "Danny Boy" and "Hey Jude" followed immediately by a top hit from ABBA The show does not use gimmicky special effects to deliver high quality entertainment. Instead, it stands on its own as one of Branson's most exciting shows on the foundation of true vocal talent and a group of young performers with an immense collection of talent.

Lee Greenwood with Louise Mandrel

Performing for the first time together in Branson, these two dynamic entertainers team up to bring their showmanship and high energy production to the Welk Resort Theatre. Greenwood had seven #1 hits including "Dixie Road" and "God Bless the USA." Mandrell wows audiences whether belting out her favorite songs, spinning her way through dizzying dance routines or playing 13 different musical instruments.

Legends in Concert

With international acclaim and its storied history, Legends In Concert, owned and operated by On Stage Entertainment, is known as the pioneer of live tribute shows and possesses the greatest collection of live tribute artists and celebrity look-alikes in the industry. Each universally renowned performer not only looks and sounds like the star they portray, they transform themselves through hours of practice at their craft. This is accomplished by using their own natural voices and every detail is taken into consideration from choreography, to hair, make-up and mannerisms. With so many talented live tribute artists, Legends In Concert is the original and largest live celebrity tribute show in the world.

Legends In Concert live tribute shows are known for their elaborate theatrical sets, magnificent costumes and full array of incredible special effects, including three dimensional multimedia and multimillion dollar, state-of-the-art lighting, laser and sound systems.
