Day 1: Quebec is a city for all seasons - summer, winter, spring or fall. The charm of the walled "Old City" beckons with its cobblestone streets and historic landmarks. The spring is a great time to visit Quebec as the flowers come into bloom and the artist seek to begain painting the spring landscapes. Your home for the next three nights will be at the Chateau Laurier next to the gates to the Old City. Tonight we will dine in Old Quebec where we will capture the flavor of Europe. This hotel is located on the Grand Alle where many of the fine restaurants and night cliubs are located. Dinner Included.

Day 2: This morning we will tour the old city by both motorcoach and on foot with a local guide. Quebec is as close to a European City as you can get with out leaving North America. You will see the char and feel the quaintness of this city. This afternoon you might want to take a tour of Parliament, or wander the shops of the old city, or perhaps you might want to relax and use the facilities of the hotel. Breakfast and Dinner included

Day 3: Today is a day to enjoy all Quebec has to offer. We will visit St. Anne De Beaupre for those that want to visit and explore some of the unique attractions outside of the city. We will visit a wood carver that tell shis stories with his carvings, a bread maker making bread as they have for hundres of years and a multimedia presentation that will tell you the story fo Quebec in 3 D. Breakfast and Dinner included.

Day 4: Today we head home full of insight into the history and culture of our Canadian neighbors next door. Before leaving the city, we will enjoy a hearty breakfast buffet. Breakfast Included.
