Day 1: We fly from New England to New Orleans where the fun begins. On arrival in New Orleans you will be transferred to your hotel the Sheraton Four Points. On the way to the hotel your guide will provide an orientation tour to help you become acquainted with the hotel and what is nearby. This afternoon visit the Katrina Exhibit, and the Mardi Gras Museum. The Katrina exhibit tells the story of survival and courage of the people who went through the storm that changed New Orleans. On the second floor enjoy the costumes, the history and the trinkets of past Mardi Gras Seasons. This evening enjoy dinner in the French Quarter of New Orleans followed by time to enjoy the music and activity on Bourbon St. You might want visit to Pat O'Brien's known for its piano bar and Hurricanes (if you don't want to take the souvenir glass home be sure to let your server know so you are not charged) During Mardi Gras season there is a parade almost every day & night. 2 pm Krewe of Barkus Parade. Dinner

Day 2: Breakfast will be included at a nearby restaurant. After breakfast your local guide will take you on a tour to see the highlights of New Orleans City tour. On the city tour you will see the Garden District, the Parks, cemeteries, landmarks from movies, the Super Dome and so much more. WW11 Museum with three D movie. After the show you will have some time to enjoy yourself or shop in the French quarter. Your tour director will have lots of suggestions as to where to eat close to the hotel or in the French Quarter. Your tour director will track the parade and give you a time when the parades will get to the hotel. Breakfast

Day 3: Depart for a breakfast of beignets, coffee, orange juice, hot chocolate at Café du Monde. Next it is on to the New Orleans School of Cooking where you will assist in the preparation of your lunch. There will be plenty of time to shop for products either before or after the class. After the Cooking School this is a perfect time to take a horse drawn carriage ride or a bike taxi tour of the French quarter. Your tour director will make reservations for dinner for those that wish to join. Breakfast

Day 4: Today we travel an hour south to the Delta for a tour through the swamps and a visit to an Alligator farm. See how alligators are farmed and the eggs harvested. As you travel through the swamps captain Billy Gaston will talk about the flora and fauna and those that want to feed an alligator will have the opportunity. This makes a great photo opportunity as the Alligators respond to being called by name. Tonight there are two parades: Krewe of Druids and Krewe of Nyx. These parades follow each other. Breakfast & Dinner
